About you

Is there anything about your personal situation or circumstances you'd like to tell us or think we need to know?

Yes

Please tell us about this.

I am currently residing in Australia and operate a small business (Legion Bot) with no prior connection to Danny Hayes or I-SCAFF Access Solutions Ltd. Despite this, Hayes has engaged in a sustained campaign to damage my livelihood

These actions appear motivated solely by personal malice, as I have never interacted with Hayes professionally or personally before these attacks. The geographical distance (UK to Australia) further underscores the targeted nature of this behavior, which has caused significant stress and reputational harm.

I am reporting this to seek protection from ongoing defamation and harassment, and to prevent further interference with my business operations.

No

Is there anything else we should know about contacting you?

I am currently residing in Australia and operate a small business (Legion Bot) with no prior connection to Danny Hayes or I-SCAFF Access Solutions Ltd. Despite this, Hayes has engaged in a sustained campaign to damage my livelihood by:

Falsely accusing my business of fraud (see attached screenshots of public posts).

Organizing mass false reports to Discord/PayPal to disrupt services.

Weaponizing his affiliation with I-SCAFF to lend credibility to his harassment.

These actions appear motivated solely by personal malice, as I have never interacted with Hayes professionally or personally before these attacks. The geographical distance (UK to Australia) further underscores the targeted nature of this behavior, which has caused significant stress and reputational harm.

I am reporting this to seek protection from ongoing defamation and harassment, and to prevent further interference with my business operations.

Tell us what happened

Danny Hayes, an employee of I-SCAFF Access Solutions Ltd (Wantage/Didcot, UK), has engaged in a malicious campaign to defame, harass, and sabotage my business (Legion Bot)—despite having no prior interaction or professional relationship with him. His actions include:

False Accusations & Defamation

Publicly labeled my business a "scam" and "crooked" without evidence (see attached screenshots: [slander5.png], [DannyHayes3.png]).

Falsely claimed I "mistreat paying customers", despite documented support efforts (e.g., [slander1.png] shows full context of exchanges).

Organized Harassment & False Reports

Encouraged mass reporting of my business to Discord and PayPal to trigger unwarranted suspensions/refunds ([DannyHayes3.png]: "Report it to Discord. Get him shut down").

Mobilized others (e.g., Daniel Santos) to amplify false claims ([slander4.png]).

Misuse of Employer's Reputation

Linked his harassment to I-SCAFF, using his professional profile to lend credibility to attacks ([dhayes4.png]: "proudly linking I-SCAFF to his vendettas").

Risked I-SCAFF's legal liability by associating them with his defamatory acts.

Geographical & Psychological Impact

As an Australian resident, I am vulnerable to cross-border harassment with limited recourse.

The campaign has caused severe stress, reputational damage, and financial harm due to fraudulent chargeback attempts and lost clients.

Detailed Incident Report - Harassment & Business Interference by Danny Hayes

Summary of Events:

Initial Technical Issue (Legitimate Support Request)

On July 19-20, 2025, user dani23COVID reported banking economy issues with Legion Bot Despite documentation in premium channels (#premium_announcements, #known-issues) explaining ongoing backend updates, the user:

Demanded immediate personal responses

Ignored pinned solutions

Became confrontational when asked to review existing documentation

Service Termination

After repeated abusive messages and refusal to follow support protocols, the subscription was canceled per Terms of Service

Standard procedure was followed: warnings given, cancellation notice provided, server access revoked

Retaliatory Harassment Campaign

Beginning July 20, Danny Hayes (I-SCAFF employee) initiated a smear campaign:

Publicly labeled Legion Bot a "scam" across multiple platforms

Organized mass false reports to Discord/PayPal (screenshots attached)

Recruited others (Daniel Santos) to amplify false claims

Weaponized his I-SCAFF affiliation to lend credibility to attacks

Business Impact:

7 fraudulent PayPal disputes filed (all resolved in our favor after review)

4+ false Discord reports (none upheld after investigation)

Estimated £200 in lost revenue from disrupted operations

140+ staff hours wasted addressing false claims instead of development

Key Evidence:

Complete support logs showing proper procedure was followed

Documentation proving issues/solutions were communicated in advance

Screenshots of Hayes' organized harassment (attached)

Documentation of Hayes linking attacks to I-SCAFF employment

Legal Concerns:

Cross-border harassment (UK → Australia)

Organized false reporting constituting business interference

Defamation through knowingly false scam accusations

Potential employer liability for Hayes' misuse of company affiliation

How has what's been happening made you feel or affected your daily life? Has your mental health suffered? Have you done things like change your route to work or how you use social media?

Emotional & Psychological Impact:

Severe Stress & Anxiety: The relentless harassment campaign has caused significant emotional distress, including sleep disturbances, difficulty concentrating, and constant worry about further attacks on my livelihood.

Professional Reputation Damage: Being falsely labeled a "scam" and targeted by coordinated reporting has undermined trust in my business, leading to public humiliation and loss of professional confidence.

Fear for Business Survival: The false reports and smear tactics have created financial instability, making me fear for the future of my sole source of income.

Financial & Operational Consequences:

Lost Revenue: Over £200 in lost subscriptions and refund processing fees due to fraudulent disputes.

Wasted Resources: 140+ hours spent addressing false claims instead of improving services for legitimate customers.

Increased Operational Costs: Legal consultations, additional moderation staff, and reputation management efforts.

Personal Life Disruption:

Strained Relationships: The stress has spilled into my personal life, affecting interactions with family and friends.

Loss of Passion: What began as a passion project has become a source of dread due to constant attacks.

Request for Support:

I urge authorities to recognize the severity of this harassment, which has crossed international boundaries and caused tangible harm to my mental health and business. Immediate intervention is needed to stop further damage.
