Re: Unlawful publication and republication on Facebook

I give Meta actual notice that the Facebook post at this URL, and all reshares and derivatives on your services, contain false and defamatory allegations about my business, Legion Killfeed:

<https://www.facebook.com/share/p/1EKKQXNAKi/>

The content is false, injurious, and part of a coordinated smear. Each continued display, reshare, recommendation, or algorithmic distribution after this notice is a fresh publication after notice, causing serious harm.

Requests to Meta

Remove or disable access to the above URL on Facebook, including all reshares, mirrors, and cached previews across your products.

Suppress further distribution, including recommendations, notifications, autosuggest, and search surfaces, and apply hash matching to prevent re-uploads of the same material.

Breserve all evidence for litigation. This includes the original and derivative post IDs, account and page IDs, share trees, comment threads, edit histories, moderation logs, takedown logs, notification logs, and associated metadata and timestamps. Do not delete or alter this data.

Confirm in writing that removal and preservation have been actioned, and provide the appropriate address for service and a single legal point of contact for all further correspondence.

Jurisdiction: I reserve all rights to seek interlocutory and final relief in New South Wales, including injunctions, damages, interest, and costs. Nothing in this notice is a waiver. This notice is without prejudice to my rights.

Please respond from Meta Legal only.
